

HISTORY

O'DONNELL GOLF CLUB was built by Thomas A. O'Donnell, an oilman who came to Palm Springs in the mid 1920s. He purchased the land upon which the O'Donnell Course is now built in 1925.

In 1927 Mr. O'Donnell then carefully planned and built at his own expense our beautiful golf course with its magnificent palm trees, oleanders and tamarisks, and its green carpet of Bermuda and rye grasses.

The course includes nine holes with two tee positions for each hole and is SCGA rated. O'Donnell Golf Club is also unique in that there are no "tee" times. One can just come out and play.

After operating the golf course for more than fifteen years at his own expense, Tom O'Donnell in 1944 organized The O'Donnell Golf Club as a private, non profit club to which he gave a 99-year lease for the property.
